Welcome Home to The Grove Frisco!

Centered around their own dedicated green space and playground, the homes in this section are located north of Main Street, close to The Grove Frisco’s newest amenity center which will be opening in 2026. There’s also easy access to the extensive neighborhood trail system and all that The Grove Frisco offers. This community is projected to showcase 102 acres of intentionally designed open space to include recreational amenities, parks, pavilions, pools, city parks, playgrounds, ponds, splash pad, fishing pier and more. See our team about the latest lot availability.

The total number, layout, design and location of homes; unit mix; and the location, design and layout of recreational facilities may be changed due to a number of circumstances, including governmental requirements and market demand.
